Society save lives from breast cancer. Making Strides Against Breast Cancer events and the dollars raised from them help the American Cancer Society fund groundbreaking breast cancer research and provide free, comprehensive information and support to those touched by breast cancer. The American Cancer Society helps people take steps to reduce their breast cancer risk or find it early when it may be easier to treat. The Making Strides program is the largest network of breast cancer awareness events in the nation, uniting over 200 communities with a shared determination to save lives. “Events like Making Strides Against Breast Cancer bring us together as a powerful force to end this disease,” said Sandrena Durr, President of Rho Iota Zeta Chapter. “We are proud to join the American Cancer Society to help raise awareness and funds to create a world without breast cancer.” To support Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.’s commitment to Making Strides Against Breast Cancer, visit <http://makingstrideswalk.org/ZetaPhiBeta> to donate.
